

Who's In Charge Here?

Moses & Pharaoh

Exodus 7-11

(The Formidable Unforgotten #4)

8-30-20

1. The message of the 10 plagues is simple really: It is this: God is _____, not _____.

- A. In the plagues, God is _____ himself to the world.
- B. God wanted the _____ people to come to the understanding that he was not just some Hebrew religious notion.
- C. God specifically wanted _____ to understand that he was not the big cheese he thought he was.
- D. God wanted the _____ to become acquainted with him as their real father.
- E. God wanted the _____ to know that the God of the Hebrew people is the only true God.

2. The Ten Plagues also tell us that God is king of every _____, _____, _____, or _____.

- A. The account of the Ten Plagues is the picture of two kings (_____ and _____) fighting over who owns the _____, and _____.
- B. There is no square inch of the earth over which God does not say, "_____."

"Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all." 1 Chronicles 29:11, NIV

- C. Find the _____ and _____ it with every one you care about! In our love affair with equality, we have married _____. And in our neutrality we have lost _____ for the truth, and _____ for those without it.

- D. Your gods are whatever _____
"the dog bites, the bee stings, and you're feeling sad."

Conclusion:

The Ten Plagues introducing God show his _____
_____ for all you turn to him.

If you want _____, _____, _____,
_____, worship/love Jesus, who made us an _____ from sin and guilt.